By: Representatives Keen of the 179th, Richardson of the 19th, Burmeister of the 119th, Jamieson of the 28th, Smith of the 168th, and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution so as to eliminate the provisions requiring the 2 local funding of education by ad valorem taxation and provide for the imposition of a state
3 sales and use tax at a rate not to exceed 3 percent, as determined by the General Assembly, 4 the proceeds of which shall be used exclusively for educational programs and purposes prior 5 to the college or postsecondary level; to provide for the submission of this amendment for 6 ratification or rejection; and for other purposes.

7 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

8
9 Article VIII, Section VI of the Constitution is amended by adding a new paragraph at the end
10 thereof, to be designated Paragraph V, to read as follows:

11 "Paragraph V. Ad valorem taxation power limited. The authority provided under this 12 Constitution to local school systems to levy and collect ad valorem taxes for educational 13 purposes shall continue on and after January 1, 2008, but only for the purpose of retiring 14 any outstanding public debt or any bonds or obligations issued or incurred by a local school 15 system of this state for educational purposes on or before December 31, 2007. Once such 16 debt is retired with respect to a local school system, the provisions of Section VIA of this 17 article shall become applicable."

SECTION 2.

18
19 Article VIII of the Constitution is amended by adding a new section immediately following 20 Section VI, to be designated Section VIA, to read as follows:

1                                   "SECTION VIA.

2                                   STATE TAXATION FOR EDUCATION

3       Paragraph I. State taxation for education. (a) Except as otherwise provided in 4       Paragraph V of Section VI of this article, the authority provided under this Constitution to 5       levy and collect ad valorem taxes for educational purposes shall continue until December
6       31, 2007, and, on and after January 1, 2008, such authority shall cease and no ad valorem 7       taxes for educational purposes shall be levied in this state.

8       (b) In addition to any state or local sales and use tax in effect on January 1, 2008, there 9       is imposed effective on that date and thereafter a state sales and use tax at a rate not to 10      exceed 3 percent, as determined by the General Assembly. The sales and use tax imposed 11      by this subparagraph shall correspond to the state sales and use tax imposed by the revenue 12      laws of this state, as now or hereafter amended, except as otherwise provided in this 13      Paragraph. The tax shall not apply to sales of motor fuels. The tax imposed pursuant to 14      this subparagraph shall not be subject to any sales and use tax exemption provided by 15      general law unless expressly provided otherwise by the General Assembly. The tax 16      imposed by this subparagraph shall be levied and collected in the same manner as the other 17      state sales and use tax is levied and collected. The total proceeds derived by the state from 18      the sales and use tax imposed by this subparagraph shall be used exclusively for 19      educational programs and purposes prior to the college or postsecondary level. The 20      General Assembly shall appropriate all proceeds of the tax for the educational programs 21      and purposes authorized under this subparagraph prior to the college or postsecondary 22      level."

23                                   SECTION 3.

24      The above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be published and submitted as 25      provided in Article X, Section I, Paragraph II of the Constitution. The ballot submitting the 26      above proposed amendment shall have written or printed thereon the following:

27      "( ) YES   Shall the Constitution be amended so as to eliminate local ad valorem 28                   property taxes for education and replace them with a sales and use tax not 29      ( ) NO     to exceed 3 percent, to be used exclusively for educational programs and 30                   purposes?"

31      All persons desiring to vote in favor of ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "Yes."
32      All persons desiring to vote against ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "No." If 33      such amendment shall be ratified as provided in said Paragraph of the Constitution, it shall 34      become a part of the Constitution of this state.
